POLICY AND GUIDELINES OF THE NORTHEAST GEORGIA AREA SERVICE COMMITTEE

ARTICLE 1. DEFINITION AND PURPOSE OF THE ASC

An Area Service Committee (ASC) is a committee made up of group service representatives (GSRs) from groups within a designated area, which meet for the express purpose of serving the specific needs of its member groups.

The most important service an ASC provides is supporting its groups. Whenever a group has a specific situation or need which it has not been able to handle on its own; it can come to its ASC for help. These situations are almost limitless in scope; however, we have learned that we can get much accomplished when we work together.

An ASC performs other functions which are of help to its groups. It can help groups get started or give aid to floundering groups. It may hold workshops or seminars to train trusted servants. It can look for potential places to keep a stock of literature which the groups can purchase. Put simply, an ASC handles whatever functions are necessary or helpful to its groups. In order to provide these services, an ASC needs the active participation of its GSRs and member groups. A group supports its ASC financially, physically and emotionally. It is the groups' responsibility to provide this support in whatever way they can.

The active participation of each GSR is essential for a successful ASC. Each GSR must keep their own group informed and must represent that group's conscience in all committee decisions. GSRs should evaluate each vote in terms of the needs of those they serve. In addition to this, a GSR participates in helping to carry out the ASC's other specific functions. The attracting of new members, the planning and implementation of activities, and the aid given to the groups with specific situations are services that require much more effort than a monthly meeting. In order to coordinate its services, each ASC elects officers yearly. Leadership and ability to organize give the committee direction; incentive must come from its officers.

“Everything that occurs in the course of NA service must be motivated by the desire to more successfully carry the message of recovery to the addict who still suffers. It was for this reason that we began this work. We must always remember that as individual members, groups and service committees, we are not and should never be in competition with each other. We work separately and together to help the newcomer and for our common good. We have learned, painfully, that internal strife cripples our Fellowship; it prevents us from providing the services necessary for growth.”
